

Year 11 Reports 2023/24

To support your child in achieving in year 11, there will be three reports issued:

- October 2023: ATL grades only
- December 2023
- March 2024

The first report will only contain attitude to learning (ATL) grades to indicate how the students has started year 11.

The second report is based on the first set of mock examinations taking place during November.

The third report is based on the second set of mock examinations.

All dates are subject to change.

Working at Grades

For each subject, the report will contain a working at grade, flight path target grade and a GCSE target grade.

The flight path for year 11 is included below. To judge the progress of your child, compare the current working at grade to the relevant flight path target.

The GCSE target grades are set using nationally analysed performance data. These work alongside the flight path targets and reflect a minimum that your child should be working towards achieving. The targets are partly based on prior attainment and do not reflect a limit on the grade they can achieve. The targets are also designed that a + grade GCSE target (for example 5+) has a flight path target of a grade 6 by the end of the course.
