Dear Parent/Carer,

Next week we are introducing additional class change bells to support students in arriving punctually to lessons, the school is going to implement 3-minute warning bells at the end of break and lunchtime. These will ring at 11.17am and 1.37pm.

A group of Year 12 students have spent the past year developing and refining their own TED-style talks, which they will be presenting on Wednesday 11th March in Gloucester Hall from 6:00pm–7:30pm.

Throughout the year, students have crafted thoughtful, engaging talks on topics they feel passionate about. This year's presentations include:

- Harvey S – The Importance of Talking
- Hazel G – The Weather and Our Mood
- Noah W – The Importance of the Moon
- Megan R & Freya J – Is School Preparing Us for the Future or Just Exams?
- Evie S – What Makes a Life Matter?
- Jake B – The Illusion of Time

We would love for you to join us in celebrating the creativity, confidence and hard work these students have shown. If you would like to attend, please email clara.burns@pws.emat.uk or aaron.burrows@pws.emat.uk
